CAPTAIN STONE'S SIDE

More Light Thrown Upon the Louisville Convention.

THAT WRITTEN AGREEMENT

Between Himself and the Fraudulent Candidate for Governor.

IT HAS MYSTERIOUSLY VANISHED.

From the Time That Redwine Was Elected Chairman, Goebel and His Lik

Have Not Only Striven to Destroy the Captain Politically, but to Hasten His Reputation for Honesty and Integrity.

Captain Stone came to town yesterday and stopped at the Willard as usual.

A dispatch reporter went to him for information as to the whereabouts of the written agreement between himself and Goebel.

He could not tell but he had a story scarcely less interesting.

"It was charged after the convention," said the captain, "that I had entered into a corrupt bargain to rob

Hardin of his votes. I ignored this charge for some time, but on persistent demand I was obliged to give it to one without the charge that I felt that I could no longer rest under such an imputation.

"When the agreement was signed, Mr. Woodson was present. He and Mr. Goebel having written and signed the document, I read it carefully and finding it in accordance with the understanding as to what we should put in writing, signed it.

During the excitement in the convention on Saturday afternoon after Hardin had withdrawn, when my friends were demanding that Goebel withdraw in accordance with his promise, Goebel came over to where I was sitting on the stage. I noticed that he had the written agreement with him in his hand. I asked him to show it to me and he replied that Woodson had just put it into his hand.

Of course I knew immediately that the paper was being circulated among some of my friends to convince them that Goebel had never promised to withdraw in my favor, and that all the agreement between us was in writing.

Punched by Woodson. "The charge that I had entered into a corrupt bargain so persistently made after the convention that I decided to seek Woodson and if possible secure a copy of the agreement so that I would not owe Woodson Wednesday, Sept. 7, for this purpose. When I asked Woodson for a copy of the agreement he refused upon the ground that it was his private property and that he would not subject it to the joint order of Mr. Goebel and myself. When I confronted him with the fact that Goebel had the agreement in his hand, he replied that he did not have it with him, but that it was in a safe place where nobody would see it.

"Urry," I said, "Goebel has that agreement in violation of our distinct understanding. Now hasn't he?" "No," he said, in a hesitating manner. "A Warm Interview. "Nature," my interview was growing warm by this time. I told him from the time that Redwine was elected chairman of the Music hall convention, he and Goebel had not only striven to destroy me politically, but to biast my reputation for honesty and integrity that I sought a copy of that agreement to clear myself of the charge that I had entered into a corrupt bargain. He refused to give up a copy; that it was at the disposal of his master, Goebel, to be used for all his purposes, but that I could not secure a copy of it in defense of my reputation.

"From the beginning of the negotiations for joint action in organizing it was generally conceded by Goebel and Woodson when they were in my presence that Goebel could not win and that my nomination was the only possible result. The organization was the principal thing about which they seemed concerned. The written agreement, provided that we were to join our forces to elect a temporary chairman upon whom we were both to agree. We were each to name a man for the state at large on the credentials, organization and resolutions committees, and one each of the members of the state committees for the state to be chairman.

In case of contest. "In case of contests between myself and Hardin, if the evidence was in favor of my delegates, Goebel was to use his influence to have them seated. In contests between Goebel and Hardin where the proof was for Goebel's delegates I was to use my influence to have them seated.

"There was a verbal agreement to the effect that if the contesting delegates from Louisville were seated, I was to get half of the votes. This agreement, as to the committees and the vote for chairman was carried out, but I was to name one man for each of the committees and Judge Jones of Barron county for member of the state central and executive committees for the state at large.

"Mayor Weaver came to my room after the agreement had been reached and assured me that if the Louisville contestants were seated I would get half the votes. Yet on the first ballot they went solidly for Goebel and were ready to go to him at any time to defeat me and nominate Goebel.

"Mr. Bush of Hopkinsville was the only member on the credentials committee for whom I was responsible. The others who were my friends were elected by the districts. After leaving Owensboro I went to Hopkinsville to see Mr. Bush and ask him for his recollection of my relations to the credentials committee. He says I never asked him to do anything except what was fair and right and would according to the evidence. When the credentials committee had completed its work three of my friends sent me to consult about the report. I told them I wanted only what was fair and right.

"The three friends of mine on the committee on credentials are honorable gentlemen, and I know did not do anything to harm them. I would not draw in my favor. His whole crowd has already been silenced by what I said immediately after the convention. The statements made then have not been denied and can not be without discredit for the truth."—Louisville Dispatch.

"With to express my thanks to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for having put on the market a remedy so valuable. I was Mr. Massell, of Belmont, Tenn. There are many thousands of mothers whose children have been saved from attacks of dysentery and cholera infantum who must also feel thankful. It is for sale by J. J. Wood & Son, Druggists.

UNITED STATES ELECTION LAW.

Honest Election Leagues are being organized all over Kentucky, and the decent, law-abiding citizens were never so determined as now to punish crimes against a free ballot.

The men who have heretofore committed these crimes with impunity, relying upon the never failing protection of the state courts, will this year have to reckon with the Federal law and the United States Courts, and every law-breaker knows what that means.

Here is a section of the United States Statutes that will be of interest to registration and election officers and the political hangers-on who are employed to interfere with the rights of citizens at the polls.

Section 1006.—Every person who, by any unlawful means, hinders, delays, prevents, or obstructs, or combines and confederates with others to hinder, delay, prevent, or obstruct any citizen from doing any act required to be done to qualify himself to vote, or from voting at any election in any state, territory, district, county, city, parish, township, school district, municipality, or other territorial subdivision, shall be fined not less than $200, or imprisoned not less than one month nor more than one year, or be punished by both such fine and imprisonment.

In addition to the above law, which is broad enough to cover all interference with voters on registration and election days, United States Judge Walter Evans in his charge to the Federal Grand Jury at the last term of Court in Louisville held that under the civil rights amendment to the Constitution the United States Courts has jurisdiction to protect Negroes in the exercise of their right of suffrage in any election, whether National, state or municipal. This will be a bulwark of protection to Negro citizens, as the ward heeler will not take chances on a Federal Grand Jury and a trial in the United States Court for the privilege of robbing an inoffensive man of his ballot.

Fraud and fraud will be met by appeal to the law, and the honest Election Leagues will pursue every offender, whether high or low in political station, to the very gates of the Penitentiary.

Every decent law-breaker who is found at the polls man who have never before been law-abiding they are today, and the result will be an utter rout of Gophers and Gebelesins.

ARISE AND ANSWER!

Former Confederate For the Question to William Goebel. Russellville, Ky., Sept. 19.—The following very interesting communication to William Goebel has been prepared by ex-Confederates of this place: To the Hon. William Goebel:

We, the undersigned, ex-Confederates of Russellville, Ky., note with interest the questions put to you by some of our Confederate brethren of Glasgow, calling upon you to name the Hallam to whom you refer as having been convicted of a civil crime, and to state when and where said Hallam was sent to the penitentiary.

We are informed through a newspaper which is supporting you that you had this to say at Henderson in reference to the above charge: "I don't care to say anything more about this Hallam family further than this. He had a brother who was not in the Confederate army, and it was that brother who was in the penitentiary. It was the last Hallam mentioned in the letter of H. C. Hallam, brother of Theodore Hallam, published in a Louisville paper."

In referring to the letter from H. C. Hallam, which you mention, we find that the only brother there referred to was named J. R. Hallam, Jr., and he served in the Confederate army in Missouri's regiment, as stated by H. C. Hallam and corroborated by the history of the orphan brigade, page 618, which shows that he has an exceedingly creditable record.

Now, in view of these conflicting statements, we insist that you make further explanation of the matter.

J. B. BRIGGS, Brig Gen commanding Second Kentucky Brigade, U. C. V. S. B. RYAN, JOHN W. CALDWELL, H. B. ANDREWS, J. M. DALE, H. K. WHITE.

These veterans of the Confederacy are waiting to hear Goebel's reply. He must answer or go branded as an originator and disseminator of falsehoods.—Louisville Dispatch.

SHATTUCK VS. ATKINSON. Refers to the Anti-imperialist as a "Shattering Compendium."

An Associated Press dispatch from Cincinnati says: In reply to another letter from Edward Atkinson of Boston, representative of the anti-imperialists, Congressmen W. B. Shattuck of this city has written a lengthy communication, refusing to retract anything in his former correspondence. He denounces all "whose shambolizing is from the rear," and closes thus: "The war is the people's war. They inaugurated it, and they will stand by the administration, which is endeavoring to carry out their will, that the rebellion be suppressed and order re-
